

Effects of domestic violence training

November 28, 2006

Choices for Children will host a free inclusion training on the effects of violence on children from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Nov. 30 at the South Lake Tahoe Branch Library, 1000 Rufus Allen Blvd. The event will include dinner and a door prize.

Leanne Wagoner, South Lake Tahoe Women's Center operations manager, and Lisa Michele Utzig, outreach coordinator, will present the effects of domestic violence on children. They will address important topics including the characteristics of an abusive relationship; physical, emotional, financial, pregnancy and domestic violence with the effects on an unborn child; developmental effects of domestic violence on infants, toddlers, young children and school-age children; the long-term effects of growing up as a victim of abuse;

---

BACK 