

Turkeys donated

Provided to the Tribune
January 15, 2007

Harrah's and Harveys distribute turkeys as a holiday gift to its nearly 2,900 employees every year. Employees have the option of donating their turkeys, and the casinos also donate any that are left over. This year Harrah's/Harveys distributed more than 1,000 turkeys to nine organizations. The donations were made to:

- Carson Valley Food Closet, 200
- Christmas Cheer, 200
- South Lake Tahoe Women's Center, 300
- F.I.S.H. in Carson City, 160
- Carson Senior Center, 60
- Our Lady of Tahoe Catholic Church, 70
- Community Resource Center, 60
- Carson Tahoe Regional Medical Center, 20
- Sierra Recovery Center, 12

Provided to the Tahoe Daily Tribune. Jane Flavin, Harrah's Winning Together manager, center, delivers turkeys to the South Lake Tahoe Women's Center. Accepting the donation are Sarah Utzig, advocate volunteer coordinator, left, and Antonia Gonzalez, home visit advocate.

Click to Enlarge